Friday, August 27, 2010

10:30 am–11:30 am	Visit to Parade Street Campus Guests will be treated to a special presentation at the original lecture theatre located in the Parade Street Building. Now occupied by the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary, this building will soon undergo major renovations and alumni will have the opportunity to see the building one last time before renovations get underway. Note: depending on the building renovation schedule, this event may be altered slightly.
12:00 pm -2:00 pm	Networking Lunch and Registration This event will take place at one of Memorial's newest buildings, the Inco Innovation Centre. This will be a wonderful opportunity to enjoy an informal lunch and reconnect with some of your former classmates. This will take place in the glass enclosed lobby that boasts an interesting view of the centre of campus. Official reunion registration will take place during this lunch and registration packets will be distributed. Don't miss it!
2:00 pm – 5:00 pm	Memorial on Parade Symposium and Reception This symposium will take place at the Inco Innovation Centre and will host a variety of presenters which will focus on the importance of Memorial College to the country and the province. Afterwards, take some time to mingle with reunion attendees and enjoy a coffee in the Inco Building.

Saturday, August 28, 2010

10:30 am–12:30 am	Tour of The Rooms The Rooms is the province's largest public cultural space, and includes the Art Gallery, Provincial Archives and Museum. This facility gives visitors a panoramic view of downtown St. John's.
Free Afternoon	Afternoon at Your Leisure Need to take some time to rediscover St. John's? Let us suggest a few interesting places to visit. Try the Johnson Geo Centre located on Signal Hill or the Marine Lab in Logy Bay or Botanical Garden on Mt. Scio Road. Or how about a guided tour of the Memorial Campus? For more information on a campus tour, email carol@mun.ca.
7:00 pm – 10:00 pm	Banquet Reception & Dinner Join us at R. Gushue Hall for yet another networking reception, a delicious meal, after dinner entertainment and the opportunity to say 'see you soon' to your classmates.
